Event Report

Mr. Pranav Arora is an advocate practicing in the Supreme Court of India having his area of expertise in human rights law. He gave his kind consent to deliver a lecture on the Citizenship Amendment Act, 2019 on 20.01.2020. The session was attended by HOD Prof. Dr. Pallavi Gupta, Dr. Amita Rathi, Ms. Akansha Ghose, Ms. Sonika and Mr. Rahul Arora as well as IVth semester students of both BALLB and BBA LLB programs.

The objective of the lecture was to expose the students to a nuanced view on the recent Citizenship Amendment Act. In his lecture, Mr. Pranav touched upon two major issues i.e. the Constitutional validity of Citizenship Amendment Act, 2019 and its interface with human rights.

He discussed how this particular Act violates some basic tenets of equality provision under the Constitution of India and how it has a long term bearing on the basic rights of immigrants in the country. He concluded by asking the students about their opinion on the subject of citizenship laws and human rights.

Total number of students: 131 (M) 60 (F) 71
