REPORT

JIMS Engineering Management Technical Campus, School Of Law, organised a Workshop on Mooting skills on Saturday, 12th October,2019.

The speaker for the lecture Mr. Tanuj Agrawal, having rich experience in mooting, enlightened the students and faculties by using an interactive and “hands-on” approach to help them achieve holistic growth as well as an effective leadership with strong communication & co-ordination skills in the field of law. He has worked with eminent senior advocates such as P.H. Parekh and K.K. Venugopal at the Supreme Court of India. Currently he is associated with Sanjeev Singh and Associates. He has also published various articles in peer reviewed journals such as Sanchal Foundation and Prabhat Jagriti Manch.

The lecture was attended by 115 students and 06 faculty members of JIMS Engineering Management Technical Campus, School Of Law. The guest was heartily welcomed and felicitated by Prof. (Dr.) Ajay Tyagi, School of the Law .

Mr. Tanuj started his speech by informing the students about moot court strategies, methods of research and drafting, relation between moot court and mock trials as well as similarities and differences between them.

His lecture covered essential aspects of memorial drafting as well as manner of structuring arguments. He explained the students how to draft a statement of jurisdiction, statement of facts and prayer in a memorial. Further, to make the workshop more interactive, he constructed brief legal scenarios to the students on the spot and asked them to frame legal issues out of the given facts.

The event ended by presentation of memento to the speaker as a Token of Gratitude by Prof. (Dr.) A.K. Tyagi and a Vote Of Thanks by Ms. Akansha Ghose, Assistant Professor.

OUTCOME OF THE WORKSHOP

The students were exposed to the practical application of Legal studies as they came to know about the importance of mooting and trial advocacy. The lecture was made even more interesting by the speaker who encouraged students to participate in the workshop by putting in forth their own ideas and inputs.

Thanks and regards,
