Event Report

On 3rd of February 2020 JEMTEC SCHOOL OF LAW had a workshop on the topic of ' Entrepreneurship Development' and we had guest speaker from government organisation. The main focus of this workshop was to make people aware about the efforts taken by central government in helping entrepreneurs who have start-up plans. Further the speaker spoke about his department how Ministry is helping the Entrepreneurs under the strict supervision of government.

Later on at the end of this workshop we had a question answer round in which following questions were asked.

Question 1. How can your department help entrepreneurs when the economic condition is not good?

Question 2. How to start a business without hurting the sentiments of the society?

Question 3. Are there any district level government agencies which can help entrepreneurs?
After question answer round we winded up our workshop.
