

Event Title: Workshop on Ethical Hacking (Hands on)

Department: CSE

Date: 10th October 2019

Venue: Computer Lab-2, AB-1, JEMTEC, Greater Noida

Resource Person: Mr. Surendra Singh

Designation: Trainer

Company: Aptron Pvt Ltd, Noida, U.P.

A workshop was organized for CSE students with the objective to make students aware of power of Ethical Hacking (EH) and domains where Ethical Hacking (EH) is useful. Ethical hacking is the process can do the illegal work with legally. Mr. Surendra Singh guided students regarding how to secure our software/networking devices using EH. Students Also know what is difference between hacking and tracking. EH is very useful in security and defense purposes. He informed students regarding jobs and future demand of EH professionals. Students attended and practiced how to gmail, social media account and websites can secure from unauthorized persons.

Workshop (Hands on) on EH covered the following topics:

- Introduction to Ethical Hacking.
- Difference between Hacking and Tracking.
- Command for how to hack gmail account and social media account.
- Applications of EH.
- Jobs opportunity in field of Ethical Hacking.
- How to keep away yourself from illegal work in the hacking.

Workshop Pictures

Dr. Vikas Chaudhary
HOD-CSE