

A Guest lecture was conducted on Friday, 21st February 2025, featuring Ms. Ruby Choudhary, an expert in software development and cloud technologies. The session focused on the training and placement opportunities in JAVA, DANLC, and AWS, providing valuable insights into industry expectations, required skill sets, and career pathways.

The primary objective of the lecture was to Introduce students to industry-relevant technologies such as JAVA, DANLC, and AWS, Explain the significance of training programs and certifications for career advancement, Provide guidance on placement strategies and interview preparation and Discuss real-world applications and best practices in software development and cloud computing.