Jagannath Institute of Education has organized a special event to celebrate “International Mother Tongue Day” on February 21, 2022. It was celebrated for the very first time in the college premises with great pomp and show. The event was organized under the guidance of Dr. Rajnee Gaur.

The event started with a speech about the importance of Mother tongue in everyone’s life. After that, Principal Dr. Rekha Mahajan addressed the attendees. The event was followed by various activities and performances presented by the 1st and 2nd year students, all of which conveyed the essence of mother tongue. The performances were as follows:

- Rajasthani group dance
- Poem recitation
- Song and Gazal
- Haryanvi group dance
- Solo dances
- Drama (Skit)

The performances were enjoyed by the spectators with loud claps of appreciation for the participants.

The event ended with a vote of thanks from the host of the event Dr. Rajnee Gaur. It was a beautiful event that was nicely done up.
