Students of the department made the event more special with their divine energy and soulful performances.

- A Spiritual Beginning to Nandotsav

We began our event with Saraswati Vandana, performed along with our respected faculty members . After the invocation, the celebration of Nandotsav commenced with a warm introduction, setting the tone for the day. The audience was then treated to delightful performances of dance and music, which filled the atmosphere with joy and devotion.

- Performances

The event began with mesmerizing dance performances depicting the life and leelas of Lord Krishna. Students also presented soulful singing performances, shayari, and poetry recitations, which beautifully captured the spirit of Janmashtami.

- Matki Kala

The Matki Decoration Competition was one of the most colorful and creative highlight of Nandotsav. Students beautifully transformed simple clay pots into vibrant works of art, using paints, mirrors, beads, and traditional motifs. Each matki reflected a blend of imagination and cultural heritage, symbolizing the festive spirit of Janmashtami. The auditorium glowed with the dazzling display of colors and designs, leaving the audience mesmerized by the creativity on showcase.

Beyond being a contest, the competition encouraged teamwork, innovation, and an appreciation of tradition. Participants not only highlighted their artistic skills but also showcased the importance of preserving cultural practices in a modern context. The enthusiasm and dedication of the students made the event both visually stunning and meaningful, turning the Matki Decoration Competition into a true celebration of art, culture, and devotion.

- Gopi Dots

The Gopi Dots Stall was another most attractive highlight of the celebration, where traditional face painting took place. Students and visitors eagerly decorated their faces with colorful dots, floral patterns, and divine motifs inspired by the tales of Lord Radha and Krishna. The designs not only enhanced their festive look but also reflected the spirit of devotion and joy associated with Janmashtami. The stall created an atmosphere of excitement as people lined up to get their faces painted, capturing the essence of traditional Indian artistry in a modern, lively setting. It became a favorite among both participants and the audience, as it allowed everyone to actively engage with the cultural theme of the event. The Gopi Dots Stall truly added charm, beauty, and a touch of authenticity to the celebration, making the day even more memorable.

Winner Announcements & Recognition

The highlight of the Matki Decoration Competition came with the announcement of winners. As the results were declared, the auditorium echoed with cheers and applause for the talented participants. The winners were invited on stage and honored with hampers and certificates in recognition of their outstanding creativity and artistic skills. Their beautifully decorated matkis stood out for their unique designs, cultural motifs, and vibrant presentation. The moment was filled with pride and joy, not only for the winners but also for all the participants whose efforts made the competition a grand success. The announcement served as a true recognition of talent and encouraged everyone to continue embracing art and tradition with the same enthusiasm.
