Report: On the auspicious occasion of Hindi Diwas, B.Ed. Department of JIMS Engineering Management Technical Campus celebrated National Hindi Week with great enthusiasm and zeal. The event took place in Room No. 009, AB5 at 2:40pm, and was meticulously organized by Dr. Abha Gupta and Dr. Geeta Chaudhary. The principal, Dr. Rekha Mahajan, graced the occasion as the chief guest and also served as the judge for the various competitions. The event aimed to promote the importance of Hindi as a national language and highlight its cultural significance.

Content: The celebration featured a range of competitions, all revolving around the use of Hindi in creative and meaningful ways. The main themes of the competitions were:

1. Digital Poster Making: Students showcased their artistic and technological skills by creating digital posters that celebrated the beauty of Hindi language and culture. The posters were judged based on creativity, relevance to the theme, and overall design.
2. Slogan Writing: In this competition, participants composed short, impactful slogans that conveyed the essence of Hindi Diwas and the significance of Hindi in daily life. The slogans were evaluated on their originality, message clarity, and linguistic fluency.
3. Poem Recitation: Students recited self-written or famous Hindi poems, expressing a wide range of emotions and ideas. Their performances were assessed on pronunciation, expression, and delivery style, celebrating the poetic richness of Hindi.
4. Doha Recitation: To emphasize the importance of classical Hindi literature, students recited famous Doha's by legendary poets such as Kabir and Rahim. This competition highlighted the timeless wisdom contained in these short, profound verses, and the participants were judged on their articulation and understanding of the text.
5. Hindi Essay Writing: Participants wrote essays on various topics related to Hindi language, its development, and its role in modern India. The essays demonstrated their ability to critically engage with language issues while showcasing the versatility of Hindi for academic and intellectual discussion.

Conclusion: The competitions were judged by Prof. Dr. Rekha Mahajan, Principal of JIMS Engineering Management Technical Campus. Dr. Rekha Mahajan evaluated the participants on several parameters, including creativity, clarity of thought, proficiency in the language, and overall presentation.

In her concluding remarks, Dr. Mahajan commended the participants for their exceptional performances and underscored the importance of Hindi as a medium of communication and cultural unity in India. She encouraged the students to embrace Hindi in their professional and personal lives and to continue contributing to the preservation and promotion of the language.
