Content:

Diwali, one of the most widely celebrated festivals in India, symbolizes the victory of light over darkness and good over evil. The Diya (traditional oil lamp) holds significant cultural and religious value during the festival, and the activity sought to encourage students to express their artistic talents through the decoration of these Diyas. The event was planned well in advance to ensure the availability of required materials. Students were provided with a variety of resources including: Clay Diyas, Acrylic paints, Glitter, Decorative beads, sequins, and ribbons, Brushes, glue, and other craft supplies. The event saw enthusiastic participation from all B.Ed. students, who formed small groups to decorate the Diyas. Each group was tasked with designing and decorating at least five Diyas, incorporating innovative themes, color schemes, and techniques.

Students were encouraged to blend traditional designs with modern artistic expressions, allowing them to explore a wide array of creative possibilities. The students were given a time frame of 2 hours to complete the decoration of the Diyas. During this period, they worked together, brainstorming ideas, and executing their designs under the guidance of faculty members. The students' excitement and passion were evident as they brought their Diyas to life using bright colors and intricate details. The activity saw vibrant and beautiful Diyas being created, each reflecting the individual creativity and cultural understanding of the students.

Conclusion:

The Crafting Lamps activity was a resounding success, fulfilling its objective of combining creativity with cultural celebration. It offered B.Ed. students a platform to engage in hands-on learning while fostering a sense of belonging and tradition. The event was a wonderful reflection of the talent, creativity, and unity within the B.Ed. student community, and it was appreciated by both students and faculty alike.
