Time: 11am-2pm

Report

Legal Aid Society, Department of Law JIMSEMTC, organized a legal awareness drive, "EMPOWERING CHILDREN: EDUCATION, PROTECTION & RIGHTS". The drive was conducted in the slum areas of Surjapur with the purpose to raise awareness among the neighboring economically underprivileged residents. The members of the program worked hard to spread awareness on the ills of Child Labour punishable under Section 370 IPC, Human trafficking punishable under Section 370 and 370 A IPC, Kidnapping and Labour punishable under Section 360 IPC and Child Sexual Abuse punishable under Section 377 IPC and POCSO Act. They were also made aware of their Rights as to Education, Equality as enshrined by the Constitution of India. These vulnerable sections of our society were also informed about Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan, a flagship program of the government of India, (2001), to achieve the Universalization of Elementary Education (UEE), and also about the Child Helpline number (1098) for reporting child abuse, exploitation, and emergencies.
