

Department: CSE

Name of the event: Mock Interview

Date: 23rd January 2026

Report: The mock interview event was organized on 23rd January 2026 to help students prepare for real-world job interviews by simulating the interview experience in a supportive environment. The event aimed to enhance participants' confidence, improve their communication skills, and provide constructive feedback to refine their performance. The primary purpose of organizing the Mock Interview Event was to prepare students for actual job interviews by providing them with a simulated, yet realistic, interview experience. The event aimed to help students practice articulating their skills and knowledge confidently while receiving constructive feedback from experienced professionals and faculty members. The mock interview event successfully achieved its goal of preparing students for job interviews by offering realistic interview practice and actionable feedback. Plans are in place to organize similar events each semester with expanded participation and specialized interview tracks.
