DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

The event commenced with Saraswati Vandana and a brief introduction about the event by the anchor Ms. Kareena Sethi, the student of the third semester of the Department. She explained the importance of teachers in the life of students and then she highlighted the series of activities that would take place in the event. Then Mr. Arpit, a student of B.Com (H) 3rd semester, invited HOD and all faculty members to present a gift as a symbol of love and respect. The programme continued with dance, games and musical performances by the students. Finally, the programme ended with a cake cutting ceremony and appreciation of HOD mam to students for organising such a wonderful event. Overall, this activity was value-adding and entertaining as it helped in building up strong bond between students and faculty members and students learned organisation skills and working in teams with spirit.
