MUN

MUN is a stimulation of the United Nations. The objective of bringing this event into action was to inculcate values such as discipline and code of formal ethics and behavior. It is believed that sessions like Model United Nations, Youth Parliaments and other similar simulations reforms a student into a prudent person as the procedure followed is quite interesting and the flow of the debate helps them understand the mechanism of a formal session.

The Debate Society of JEMTEC School of Law, Greater Noida organised a one-day Model United Nations. The simulation was that of a Improvised explosive devices and Freedom of Speech. The event began with a brief induction given by Samarth Sharma.

JIMS TALKS

JIMS Talks on Entrepreneurship started with the welcome note by Honorable Chairman Sir. He warmly welcomed the resource person Mr. Prashant Pitti,, Co-Founder of EaseMyTrip and blessed the students with his kind words.

The hosts of JIMS Talks Mr.Deepak student JIMS Kalka Ji , also extended the welcome to the guest and humbly introduced the guest Mr. Prashant Pitti with the audience. Mr.Deepak started his conversation with a simple question that how the idea came to your mind to start EaseMyTrip and what are the success mantra for new start up. Mr. Prashant Pitti Replied that EasyMyTrip is an Indian online travel company that was founded in 2008 by Nishant Pitti and Rikant Pitti.

The company provides a range of travel services, including flight bookings, hotel reservations, and holiday packages.Since its founding, EasyMyTrip has experienced tremendous success, becoming one of India's leading online travel agencies. The company has achieved this success through a combination of innovative technology, competitive pricing, and excellent customer service.

One of the key factors contributing to EasyMyTrip's success has been its ability to keep costs low while still offering high-quality travel services. By cutting out the middlemen and working directly with airlines and hotels, the company is able to offer some of the most competitive prices in the industry..
